

Barbara Martin Winter Update

My biggest news is a brand new beautiful website with lots more bells and whistles, including videos. Check it out at www.barbaramartinmusic.com Winter's coming early to Virginia this year and the air is bristling with change. The world seems to have been on a roller coaster ride lately. Take a break from it all and relax with an evening of music. As the holidays approach we are offering our Tis the Season recording with free shipping with discounts for purchasing more than 5 CDs.
